From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Who Gets Off Easiest—Men or Women?

Maybe you saw that poll on who has the easiest life—men or women? Of course, the men voted that the women did, and the women vice versa.

It would be the same in our town—take any family. Thad Phillips envies his Missus spending the day at home, with no hot office to attend to. And Sue envies Thad his luncheons with the boys, and his evening glass of beer with friends (while she cleans up the dishes in the kitchen).

Of course, none of it goes very deep. Thad knows way deep down that the Missus has plenty of work running a house; and Sue knows Thad's friendly glass of beer is well-deserved relaxation after a long hard day's work.

From where I sit, most husbands and wives may grumble now and then—but they know in their hearts it's a case of live and let live, give and take, that comes out pretty even in the end.

How women and girls
may get wanted relief
from functional periodic pain

Cardul is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like aching and nervous strain of functional periodic pain. Here's how it may help:

1. It stimulates the digestive system, thus helps build resistance for the "blues" to come.

2. It relieves a day's headache "your time", is should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardul. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.
